MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS

(Railway Board)

New Delhi, the 18th February 1967

G.S.R. 205.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Railway Service of Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962.

1. These rules may be called the Indian Railway Service of Engineers Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1967.
2. In the Indian Railway Service of Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962.

(1) The existing para 10 shall be substituted by the following:

"Eligibility—

A candidate must be either:

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or

(e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or

(f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon, and the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar) with the intention of permanently settling in India;

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have got themselves registered as citizens of India under Article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) above who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, viz. 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-enters or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him by the Government."

(2) The existing clause (3) of para 12 shall be substituted by the following:—
“The upper age-limit prescribed above will be further relaxable—

- (i) upto a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;
- (ii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;
- (iii) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;
- (iv) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has received education through the medium of French at some stage;
- (v) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vi) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;

- (vii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (viii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar);
- (ix) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (x) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (xi) upto a maximum of three years, in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at five previous examinations; and
- (xii) upto a maximum of eight years, in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel who belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at ten previous examinations."

(3) The existing para 13 shall be substituted by the following:—

"Qualifications.—A candidate must have—

- (A) obtained a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational Institutes established by an Act of Parliament or declared to be deemed as Universities under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; or
- (B) passed Sections A and B of the Associate Membership Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India), or have any other educational qualifications recognised by that Institution as exempting from passing these Sections; or
- (C) obtained a degree/diploma in Engineering, from such foreign Universities/Colleges/Institutions and under such conditions as may be recognised by the Government for the purpose from time to time.

NOTE 1.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

NOTE 2.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

NOTE 3.—A candidate, who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not recognised by Government, may also apply to the Commission and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

(4) The following provision contained in the third sub-para of para 1 of Appendix I to the rules, shall be deleted:

"On appointment a probationer shall execute an agreement binding himself and one surety jointly and severally to refund in the event of his failing to complete the probation to the satisfaction of the Central Government any moneys paid to him consequent on his appointment as Probationer."

(5) In the existing Appendix IV to the rules, the compulsory subject 'Applied Mechanics (including strength of Materials and Theory of Structures)', shall be re-named as 'Structural Design' and the compulsory subject 'Construction' shall be replaced by the following and the subsequent subjects renumbered accordingly:

(i) Building Materials and Structures	... 100
(ii) Transport Engineering	... 100

(6) The existing Appendix III to the rules shall be deleted and Appendix IV re-numbered as Appendix III.

[No. E(GR)I-66RR2-1.]

G.S.R. 206.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Railway Service of Signal Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962.

1. These rules may be called the Indian Railway Service of Signal Engineers Recruitment (Second Amendment) Rules, 1967.

2. In the Indian Railway Service of Signal Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962—

(1) The existing para 10 shall be substituted by the following:

"Eligibility"

A candidate must be either:

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or

(e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or

(f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon, and the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda and United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar) with the intention of permanently settling in India;

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have got themselves registered as citizens of India under Article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) above who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, viz., 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him by the Government".

(2) The existing clause (3) of para 12 shall be substituted by the following:—

"The upper age-limit prescribed above will be further relaxable—

- (i) upto a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;
- (ii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;

- (iv) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has received education through the medium of French at some stage;
- (v) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vi) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (viii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar);
- (ix) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (x) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe, and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (xi) upto a maximum of three years, in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at five previous examinations; and
- (xii) upto a maximum of eight years in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel who belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at ten previous examinations".

(3) The existing para 13 shall be substituted by the following:—

"Qualifications:—A candidate must have—

- (A) obtained a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational Institutes established by an Act of Parliament, or declared to be deemed as Universities under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; or
- (B) passed Sections A and B of the Associate Membership Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India), or have any other educational qualifications recognised by that Institution as exempting from passing these Sections; or

- (C) obtained a degree/diploma in Engineering, from such foreign Universities/Colleges/Institutions and under such conditions as may be recognised by the Government for the purpose from time to time; or
- (D) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Tele-communication Engineers (India); or
- (E) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held after November, 1959.

The Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held prior to November 1959, is also acceptable subject to the following conditions:—

(1) that the candidates who have passed the examination held prior to November, 1959, should have appeared and passed in the following additional subjects.

- (i) Principles and Applications of Electrical Engineering (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section A of Post-1959 Scheme).
- (ii) Mathematics II (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section B of Post-1959 Scheme).

(2) that the candidates concerned should produce a certificate from the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, in fulfilment of the condition prescribed at (1) above.

NOTE 1.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

- (vii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (viii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar);
- (ix) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (x) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (xi) upto a maximum of three years, in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at five previous examinations; and
- (xii) upto a maximum of eight years in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel who belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at ten previous examinations."

(3) The existing para 13 shall be substituted by the following:—

"Qualifications.—A candidate must have—

- (A) obtained a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational Institutes established by an Act of Parliament, or declared to be deemed as Universities under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; or
- (B) passed Sections A and B of the Associate Membership Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India), or have any other educational qualifications recognised by that Institution as exempting from passing these Sections; or
- (C) obtained a degree/diploma in Engineering, from such foreign Universities/Colleges/Institutions and under such conditions as may be recognised by the Government for the purpose from time to time; or
- (D) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Tele-communication Engineers (India); or
- (E) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held after November, 1959.

The Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held prior to November 1959, is also acceptable subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) that the candidates who have passed the examination held prior to November, 1959, should have appeared and passed in the following additional subjects.
 - (i) Principles and Applications of Electrical Engineering (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section A of Post-1959 Scheme).
 - (ii) Mathematics II (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section B of Post-1959 Scheme).
- (2) that the candidates concerned should produce a certificate from the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, in fulfilment of the condition prescribed at (1) above.

Note 1.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

NOTE 2.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

NOTE 3.—A candidate, who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not recognised by Government, may also apply to the Commission and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

(4) The following provision contained in the third sub-para of para 1 of Appendix I to the rules, shall be deleted:

"On appointment a probationer shall execute an agreement binding himself and one surety jointly and severally to refund in the event of his failing to complete the probation to the satisfaction of the Central Government any moneys paid to him consequent on his appointment as Probationer."

(5) The existing Appendix II to the rules shall be deleted and Appendix IV re-numbered as Appendix III.

[No. E (GR)I-67RR-6.]

G.S.R. 208.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962.

1. These rules may be called the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers Recruitment (Second Amendment) Rules, 1967.

2. In the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1962,

(1) The existing para 10 shall be substituted by the Following:

"Eligibility—

A candidate must be either:

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or

(e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or

(f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon, and the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda and United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar) with the intention of permanently settling in India;

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have got themselves registered as citizens of India under Article 6 of the Constitution.

(iii) Non-citizens in category (i) above who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, viz., 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him by the Government."

(2) The existing clause (3) of para 12 shall be substituted by the following:—

"The upper age-limit prescribed above will be further relaxable—

- (i) upto a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;
- (ii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;
- (iii) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after January 1, 1964;
- (iv) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has received education through the medium of French at some stage;
- (v) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vi) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (viii) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar);
- (ix) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (x) upto a maximum of eight years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (xi) upto a maximum of three years, in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at five previous examinations; and
- (xii) upto a maximum of eight years in the case of the disabled ex-Defence Services personnel who belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes. This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at ten previous examinations."

(3) The existing para 13 shall be substituted by the following:—

"Qualifications:—A candidate must have—

(A) obtained a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational Institutes established by an Act of Parliament, or declared to be deemed as Universities under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; or

- (C) obtained a degree/diploma in Engineering, from such foreign Universities/Colleges/Institutions and under such conditions as may be recognised by the Government for the purpose from time to time; or
- (D) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Tele-communication Engineers (India); or
- (E) a pass in the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held after November, 1959.

The Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held prior to November 1959, is also acceptable subject to the following conditions:—

(1) that the candidates who have passed the examination held prior to November, 1959, should have appeared and passed in the following additional subjects.

- (i) Principles and Applications of Electrical Engineering (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section A of Post—1959 Scheme).
- (ii) Mathematics II (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section B of Post—1959 Scheme).

(2) that the candidates concerned should produce a certificate from the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, in fulfilment of the condition prescribed at (1) above.

NOTE 1.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

NOTE 2.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

NOTE 3.—A candidate, who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not recognised by Government, may also apply to the Commission and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

(4) The following provision contained in the third sub-para of para 1 of Appendix I to the rules, shall be deleted:

"On appointment a probationer shall execute an agreement binding himself and one surety jointly and severally to refund in the event of his failing to complete the probation to the satisfaction of the Central Government any moneys paid to him consequent on his appointment as Probationer."

(5) The existing Appendix II to the rules shall be deleted and Appendix IV re-numbered as Appendix III.
